

AVEBURY

A SOUL FAMILY RETREAT IN THE EARTH'S GALACTIC UMBILICUS

June 15-17 2009, Avebury, England

An invitation from Peter Merry

I'd like to invite you to join me and a dozen or so others to spend three days inside the Earth's energetic galactic umbilical cord. It's a unique opportunity to have this location and guide, and I'm calling those I want to deepen my world-work with.

Our Place

Avebury has always been one of the most powerful places on our planet - the largest stone circle on Earth. There are many theories about it. According to Richard Leviton, clairvoyant, geomancer and author, it is the planet's connection point with our galaxy.

When I visited Avebury in 2007, something very significant shifted in me. The Earth called me into my next level of work with her. After that, I came across Richard and his work, and it just feels right. I can't prove this is the umbilicus, but when we discovered the Dutch umbilical cord at Uddel "by chance" in May, and the words popped out of my mouth "It looks just like Avebury!", I felt it even stronger.

So when this opportunity arose to have three days in what must be the only group space inside the circle itself, with Richard as our guide, in the days running up to the Summer Solstice, I contemplated what to do with this gift. It was soon made clear to me that I was to call together all those I feel are my core soul mates in this work of planetary transition. So that is why you are receiving this information - well in time so you can book it in your diary! I trust that whoever comes are the right people.

Our Guide

Richard Leviton is a trained clairvoyant, former national health magazine editor, and author of 20 books in the fields of world myth, spirituality, landscape mysteries, healing, and natural medicine. He has published 400+ feature magazine articles on these topics. He lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Richard has conducted many workshops, tours, and experiential field trips to do with sacred sites as a foundation for illumination and initiation in the U.S. and England. He has been studying and researching Earth energies, geomancy, visionary geography, and the Mysteries since 1984 inaugurated during a 2 1/2 year immersion study in England.

We worked together for a few days in May 2008. I was deeply impressed by Richard's integrity, incredibly broad and deep insight, and commitment to the Earth and our current transition.

He said to me then : "It would be so wild to actually hold a session inside the Avebury stone circle, our planet's belly-button". I knew at that moment that I would make that happen. So this is a gift to him, and all of us as we prepare ourselves for the Great Turning.

Our Practice

The Earth is covered in thousands of holy places, sacred sites, and pilgrimage destinations. We now know where many of these once venerated and still numinous locations are, but why are they holy and sacred and the focus of so many pilgrimages? What makes them that way? Are they all the same? What role do they play in the Earth's overall life? What are the most effective ways to interact with them? These are some of the many vital questions about Earth Mysteries that geomancers explore.

Sacred sites, holy places, and pilgrimage locations are part of the focus of a discipline known as geomancy. This means the divination (mantos) of the energy and consciousness secrets of the Earth (Ge). Think of Earth Mysteries as the natural extension of the famous Gaia Hypothesis. Sacred sites and holy places function within the Earth's geomantic terrain, an interconnected planetary system that supports higher consciousness in humans through connecting them with the galaxy and spiritual worlds through apertures across the Earth's surface at sacred sites. This terrain is also called the Earth's visionary geography, because it is a landscape that inspires visions into its nature, which is a template of the cosmos.

In these three days, we will align our spiritual essence with that of the planet, both of which are resonant with the seed of light installed by the angelic realm when humans and plants were created. We find and align our deep purpose with the deep purpose of the planet for maximum energization and traction. This enables us to join what Richard calls "the campaign with Gaia for the planet."
